WRONG NAME.

The Republicans Filed Defective Papers at Murray.

The petition for a mandatory injunction against the election commissioners of Christian county, filed by the attorneys for T. J. Tate, was heard before Judge Cook at Murray Friday. Judge Jas. Breathitt and Mr. C. H. Bush were present and represented the respective sides. It was found that the papers in the case were defective, the Sheriff's return showing that the notice had been served on Jno. M. Meacham and James Garrett instead of Chas. M. Meacham and Isaac Garrett. The first notice was for Eddyville, but this was changed and the notice for Murray was not served on Mr. Garrett, who had left for Florida. In view of the defect discovered, a postponement was unavoidable and the hearing of the case was continued until tomorrow at Eddyville.

HART, THE LAUGH KING.

The Celebrated Hypnotist Is Fixing a Return Date.

Prof. Hart, the hypnotist who set Hopkinsville wild last spring, is back in town and last night began an engagement of three nights.

Since he was here he has taken a course in the New York Institute of Science, receiving the diploma of a graduate. Recently he has been showing in Virginia and Northern Kentucky.

The program for last night embraced several entirely new features. The feature of the evening was putting John Stone, a young man from Georgetown, Ky., into a sleep of two days and nights. He was put to sleep on the stage and transferred to the show window of J. T. Wall & Co., to remain until Wednesday night, when he will be awakened on the stage.

Wherever Mr. Hart plays a return date, it is to increased crowds and this will doubtless be his experience here.

LIFE OFFERED IN PRAYER

And Subject Fell Dead by The Dying Relative.

A peculiar incident is reported from Wolfe County, Kentucky. Frank Miller was at the point of death after a long illness. His brother John was offering up a prayer for him, having come to realize that his death was near at hand. In the course of his prayer John Miller said: "Oh, Lord, I am willing to give my life if it be required to save my brother." And a moment later John Miller had fallen dead. His brother died on the night of the same day and the two were buried in the same grave. The brother's prayer was answered, as Frank Miller shortly before his death confessed faith in the Lord.
